

The Covina Police Department served search warrants at a business on the 800 block of N. Cummings on Tuesday December 10, 2013, which resulted in the arrest of Joseph Gosnell Jr. of Covina on suspicion of cultivating marijuana and sales of marijuana. Investigators seized 80 marijuana plants growing inside the business, and found timers, equipment and lighting used to facilitate the indoor grow. Gosnell was booked at Covina jail and held on $30,000 bail. He is scheduled for a Thursday arraignment at West Covina Superior Court.
